Title:

Content:
Certain kinds of evidence, such as information concerning confidential negotiations between the parties prior to the arbitral proceedings, are generally considered inadmissible as evidence, and should therefore be rejected.

Referring Principles:
XII.5 - Settlement privilege