Title:

Permission Text:
This document is included in TransLex by kind permission of the author.

Table of Contents:
The 'Y2K Problem' and Arbitration: The Answer to the Myth

Content:
Page 79

The 'Y2K Problem' and Arbitration: The Answer to the Myth

by PROFESSOR DR DR YLTS*

[It is regretted that for technical reasons publication of this article was rendered impossible.]

*Professor Ylts is a computer specialist and an expert consultant on the Y2K Problem for several multinational organizations. He assisted the United Kingdom's DAC regarding electronic commerce and other matters for the English Arbitration Act 1996, having begun his arbitration career as secretary to the arbitration tribunal in The Macao Sardine Case (1986); see Sir Michael Kerr, 3 Arb Int 79.

Referring Principles:
VI.3 - Force majeure