Title:
Libyan Civil Code, Official Journal from February 13, 1954

Additional Information:
test

Table of Contents:
Libyan Civil Code
§ 2 Application of laws. Local Collision of laws

Content:
Libyan Civil Code

§ 2 Application of laws. Local Collision of laws

Art. 19"The contractual obligations are governed by the domestic law if it is the same for both parties, and, if there is no common domicile, by the law of the country where the contract is concluded. This rule is not applicable if the parties have agreed on another applicable law or if another applicable law results from the circumstances.

[Translated into English from the German translation of Makarov contained in Kropholler, Außereuropäische IPR-Gesetze, Hamburg 1999]

Referring Principles:
XIV.2 - Law applicable to international contracts