Title:

Table of Contents:
Sudanian Civil Code
   I. Private international law
      The applicable law in certain circumstances

Content:
Sudanian Civil Code

1

I. Private international law

The applicable law in certain circumstances

Art. 11"(13a)Contractual obligations are governed by the law of the common domicile of the parties, or, if there is no common domicile, by the law of the country where the contract is concluded, unless it is evident from the agreement of the parties or from the circumstances that another law shall be applicable.

[Translated into English from the German translation of Omaia Elwan contained in Kropholler, Außereuropäische IPR-Gesetze, Hamburg 1999]

Referring Principles:
  XIV.2 - Law applicable to international contracts