Title:

Content:
'A papal bull issued to the Bishop of Monary in 1208 appointed him arbiter in a cause between the monks of Melrose and the Earl of Dunbar, and the parties agreed to assign a colleague to the bishop in the arbitration.' (Walker, David M., A Legal History of Scotland, 1990, p. 372)
Appendix

Acta Regis Willelmi

[Text in Latin]

Note: The text is in Latin and relates to historical events. It discusses various legal and regal actions, possibly involving charters, writs, and other documents of that period. The text is complex and historical in nature, providing insights into the legal and administrative practices of the time.

Page 2/2