Title:
IV.2.3 - No repudiation of contractual consent by state party

Content:
No. IV.2.3 - No repudiation of contractual consent by state party

A state or state controlled entity may not invoke its sovereignty or internal law to repudiate contractual consent.

Commentary:
This rule is a special case of the Principles of sanctity of contracts ("pacta sunt servanda") and good faith.